NOTIFICATIONS.

Fort St. George, April 22, 1927.
(P.O. Press No. 1270, L. & M.)

No. 509.—The Board of Commissioners for Hindu Religious Endowments belongs to the notice of the Government that eight temple committees formed under Act XX of 1905 are in existence in the Anantapur district and requests the Government to elect three committees under clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 22 of the Hindu Religious Endowments Act, 1920 (Act II of 1927), and to constitute two new committees in their place.

for all the non-accepted temples in the district. The proceeds for the abolition of such committees are specified in the schedule to this order.

2. Temples issuing a notification as suggested by the Board, the Government under process (a) to call notices (1) of section 20 of the Act will upon the committee referred to in paragraph 1 to show cause, if any, against their abolition within a month from the date of receipt of this order. After the expiry of the period, the Government will proceed to pass orders on the Board's proposals.

ANNEXURE

MEMBER AND MAKE OF THE TEMPLE COMMITTEE AND THE RELIGIOUS ACTS AND RITUALS.

(1) Coorg Taluk Temple Committee.—The strength of the Committee is below the minimum of six prescribed by the Hindu Religious Endowments Act. No list of temples has been submitted by the Committee, nor any meeting held. The Committee is practically defunct. There are about 40 non-accepted temples in this taluk and the income by way of contributions will be inadequate to enable a Committee to run a separate establishment to carry on its work.

(2) Palghat Taluk Temple Committee.—The strength of the Committee is below the minimum of six prescribed by the Hindu Religious Endowments Act. It is reported that committee members have been co-opted by the Board, regarding the proceedings of the President of the Committee in the matter of the temple properties and temple earnings. There has been no proper supervision over the temples at all. There are about 25 temples coming under the Committee and the income in the shape of contributions receivable by the Committee will not be sufficient to maintain the necessary establishment.

(3) Pondicherry Taluk Temple Committee.—The strength of the Committee is below the minimum prescribed by the Hindu Religious Endowments Act. There has been no effective supervision by the Committee over the temples under its jurisdiction. No list of temples is maintained. The Committee cannot be said to be working properly. There are only about six temples under the jurisdiction of the Committee. A separate Committee therefore seems necessary.

(4) Madurai Taluk Temple Committee.—The strength of this Committee is below the minimum of six prescribed by the Hindu Religious Endowments Act. Meetings are not held regularly and no proceedings are recorded. No strict interest is taken by the Committee and there has been no effective supervision over the temples at all. It has not been able to do any useful work in the matter of the appointment of trustees or the recovery of temple lands, etc. The number of temples coming under the jurisdiction of the Committee is only about six, and no separate Committee can work with the funds that might be available by way of contributions.

(5) Channarayana and Kumbakonam Taluk Temple Committee.—The strength of this Committee is below the minimum of six prescribed by the Hindu Religious Endowments Act. Except the President of the Committee, none of the members is taking any interest in the affairs of the Committee which confides its work to the temples at Channarayana only. There are about 20 temples coming under the Committee and the income in the shape of contributions that may be received will not be enough to enable a separate Committee to carry on its work.

(6) Kidwai Taluk Temple Committee.—The strength of this Committee is below the minimum of six prescribed by the Hindu Religious Endowments Act and there is no supervision of the temples worth maintaining. No meetings are held nor are any records or list of temples under the Committee maintained. The appropriate number of temples under the Committee is five and a separate Committee for the taluk cannot be expected to function with the funds that may be available.

(7) Madhavaram Taluk Temple Committee.—The strength of the Committee is below the minimum of six prescribed by the Hindu Religious Endowments Act. No work has been done by the Committee as a whole or by individual members. No list of temples has been kept nor any meetings held. There are only four temples under the Committee and no separate Committee for the taluk is necessary or can work with the funds that may be available.

(8) Arundhaty Taluk Temple Committee.—The strength of the Committee is below the minimum of six prescribed by the Hindu Religious Endowments Act. No accounts are kept and no meetings have been held for the past three years. A list of temples getting landlows is maintained, but the list is incomplete and the Committee has no idea of the number of temples within its jurisdiction. No member takes any interest in the affairs of any of the temples. There are about nine temples under the Committee and the income in the shape of contributions will not be sufficient for maintaining a separate establishment.

When two or more essays or theses are considered to be of equal merit, the prize will be divided among the writers.

2. All theses or essays shall reach the Registrar before the end of February 1929.

3. The essay or thesis should be an original work done by the candidate. He shall further state whether the research has been conducted independently, under any advice or supervision with others, and in what respects his investigations appear to him to advance the study and knowledge of Ancient Indian History.

5. All essays and theses for University prize shall be forwarded to the Registrar by the prescribed date by registered post. An essay or thesis shall bear upon it the name of the competitor or anything whereby his identity can be ascertained by the persons to whom it is to be submitted for consideration. Essays or theses may be printed, type-written, lithographed or written (but not in the competitor's own hand).

6. The successful theses will, under the terms of award of the endowment, be published by the University, the exact mode of publication being determined by the Syndicate.

III. THE SRI WILLIAM WILKINSON PRIZE, 1929.

IV. THE GOSWAMI PRIZE, 1929.

5. The economics of a particular industry is a particular locality—

(a) A candidate taking this subject should confine himself mainly to a locality so limited that he can become personally acquainted with the whole of it, though discussions of particular points drawn from published reports relating to other localities may well be used. The candidate should investigate fully the history and working conditions of typical families and industries in those localities upon the recent history and prospects of the industry and of those engaged in it.

(b) The economic conditions of a particular agricultural district, either with special reference to some agricultural problem of general importance (e.g., fragmentation and excessive subdivision of holdings) or with reference to some important local problem such as that of homesteads for dharmadharma in the temple lands, or the advantages and disadvantages of Marakkhattar on the West Coast.

(c) The economic conditions and problems of some particular trade or industry of workers in either an urban or rural area, the object aimed at being an investigation similar to that of Mr. Archer Davies into Anglo-Indian families in Madras, or that of Dr. Harold Mann into Universities in the villages near Pune.

Competitors are not excluded from the choice of either subjects but should select only such as are of sufficiently unexplored dimensions so as to permit of the production of essays and theses of possible value.

Competitors are warned that essays and theses which do not draw mainly new facts or new interpretations of previously known facts, or present such rearrangement of facts and ideas as make clearer than before some point of economic interest will not be considered of merit sufficient to justify the prize.

6. All essays and theses for University prize shall be forwarded to the Registrar by the prescribed date by registered post. An essay or thesis shall bear upon it the name of the competitor or anything whereby his identity can be ascertained by the persons to whom it is to be submitted for consideration. Each essay or thesis for a University prize shall be headed by a name or a name de-plume suggested by the competitor and shall be accompanied by a sealed cover bearing on its outside the competitor's name or de-plume and containing his name, designation and address and a signed declaration that the essay or thesis has been prepared solely for the purpose of competing for the prize and has not in any manner been previously published.
